The Republican offers its readers a half hour's amusement today and those who cut out the pictures and put them together will be well repaid, for there are 50 Sells-Floto Circus tickets at The Republican office awaiting those who send in the solution.

Those who display the greatest neatness in correctly putting the pieces of the Puzzle Picture together, and the greatest originality in arranging the grouping of the names of the merchants whose advertisements appear on this page, will be awarded the prizes in accordance with the rules below.

RULES FOR PICTURE PUZZLE PRIZE COMPETITION

1.—The competition is open to every reader of the Republican except employees of this establishment.
2.—The pieces of the picture which appear in the advertisements on this page. After putting them together, they are to be pasted on a blank sheet of paper so as to form the complete picture. Then write your own name and address plainly underneath the picture. On the other side of the sheet the names and addresses (cut from the advertisements) of the advertisers must be neatly pasted.
3.—All solutions of the picture puzzle, arranged as stated above, must be delivered at or mailed so as to reach the office of the () not later than noon tomorrow.

4.—The prizes will be awarded on the following points: Correctness, neatness and unique design.
5.—The prizes will be 100 tickets to the Sells-Floto Circus, which will be here on
